

FROM THE 24th TO THE 27th OF AUGUST 2023 AT LES ANDELYS

7th INTERNATIONAL OPEN AIR LARGE FORMAT PAINTING FESTIVAL

ASSOCIATION FESTIVAL CULTURES CROISÉES

French Plein Air Painters ©

Celebrate outdoor art: The 7th edition of the «Festival de Peinture des Cultures Croisées» returns to Les Andelys with brilliance from August 24 to 27, 2023.

OUR STORY

Founded in 2000 by the russian artist-painter Anna Filimonova, the Festival Cultures Croisées develops the meetings between artists from different backgrounds on the occasion of exhibitions of paint acting as a catalyst for exchanges and dialogues between crops.

In 2011, a branch of the association moved to Fourges (Eure) and developed artistic activities in the region of Upper Normandy. Among those activities, some painting classes, attracting artists or students from various backgrounds: Bridgeview School, Fine Arts School of New York or Art Academy of St. Petersburg.

Since 2013, the association has organized an Annual International Competition of Large Format Plein Air Painting.

Through these initiatives, the Association confirms its vocation: to promote interdisciplinary and international in the field of Culture and the Arts.

Discover the vibrant colors and artistic talents who meet in the heart of the majestic Andelys landscapes!

The association 'Festival Cultures Croisées' is proud to invite you at the 7th edition of its outdoor painting festival, where creativity flourishes in a visual symphony in perfect harmony with nature.

From August 24 to 27, 2023, this artistic event promises to enchant painting enthusiasts and outdoor art enthusiasts. You will have the opportunity to walk freely among the artists and discuss with them, thus creating enriching artistic exchanges.

Olena Duchene and Amandine Jude will be our guests of honor.

Along with the outdoor painting sessions, the Outdoor Painting Festival will also feature a series of engaging activities for all ages.

We invite you to join this unique experience and dive into the bewitching world of outdoor painting.

Don't miss this exceptional opportunity to immerse yourself in the art, nature and conviviality that make this event an unmissable summer event.

Book your dates! Access is free for the exhibition, demonstrations and animations, and paying for participation painting days and collective evenings.

Registration is open on the site: frenchpleinairpainters.com.
Feel free to visit our Instagram account: birthplace_of_impressionism and our Facebook account: In the cradle of Impressionism.
Contact: afcc.anna@gmail.com.

